Wild & Wonderful!

What better way to describe our 2014 Kfeirian Reunion? Wild is the great time we'll have as we faithfully gather for the 82nd time. Wonderful is our coming together to renew the bond that binds us - our heritage. We return this year to the Pullman Plaza in Huntington, WV, a place we have called home many times. Their name has changed through the years, but whether it's Pullman, Radisson or Holiday Inn, our bond doesn't change and it's this bond that brings us together no matter where our Reunion is held. This is an exciting time for us and the hotel as we will be one of the first gatherings in the newly remodeled hotel lobby.

We've seized an opportunity to take a break from our usual two consecutive nights in the hotel and instead will enjoy our Saturday Dinner and Hafli at Huntington's Holy Spirit Orthodox Church in their newly built Reception Hall. A car ride away, this location and their hospitality allow us the opportunity to enjoy an authentic Lebanese Dinner! With a live Arabic Band, the evening will feel like our ancestral home in the village of Kfeir! Just imagine, Kibbee, Cabbage Rolls, Stuffed Grape Leaves, Baba Ghanoush, Green Beans/Lamb with Rice, pita bread and hummus. Tastes like heaven! The flavors and smells bring back wonderful memories of our Sittee's kitchens from past generations. What a moment to capture for our first night!

Last year, there was a large interest in having an Arabic band for both nights of the Reunion. The Board agrees and we have booked Chris Aceto's Arabic Band! Also, John Joseph will be our DJ for both nights! With great care taken to keep our costs low and be responsible stewards of our assets, your Board of Trustees has kept the increase to only $16 per person for the weekend. In addition, we've worked closely with Pullman Plaza management and we have a limited group of rooms at the low rate of $95 per night.

To make sure you get this $95 per night room rate, you must book by July 29, 2014.

Start planning with family members now for Labor Day Weekend, August 30th, 31st & September 1st.
